Bradt Advertising your business

An advertisement in a Bradt Slow Travel Guide introduces your company to a targeted market. If you wish to enhance your presence in this guide there is an opportunity to take paid advertising, either in-print or online.

Accommodation will be listed in a directory of places to stay in the book, and be reviewed on the Bradt Travel Guides website.

Print adverts are offered in full colour (half or full-page sizes) with a choice of templates as shown below. Early-bird prices below will be held until 31 August 2018 - see page 3 for details.

Bradt Advertising your business

How it works

If you are interested in advertising please let the author know. Once confirmation is received the author will require the following from you:

Advert Text – To be written by you (see templates on the previous page for word counts). We can help with this if you wish, and all text will be edited in-house before being passed to the designer.

Advert Images – Images to be supplied by you in the right format (portrait or landscape) to fit whichever page layout you have selected. Images must be high resolution pdf or jpeg files (minimum 300 dpi) to ensure the best print quality.

Once the text and images have been agreed, your advert will be laid out by our designer. An electronic copy of the advert will be supplied for approval.

Advertising Rates - early-bird prices available until 31st August 2018!

Full page: £190 plus £25 typesetting cost (£225 plus typesetting after 31st August 2018)

Half page: £100 plus £15 typesetting cost (£120 plus typesetting after 31st August 2018)

A small number of half page 2-colour adverts are available for £85 plus £15 typesetting cost.

Rates include liaison over copy and layout by a professional designer. VAT will be added at the standard rate of 20%. An invoice will be issued once your advert is approved and payment will be due within 2 weeks of invoice date.

Promote your company on BradtGuides.com

BradtGuides.com is a leading website for travellers, giving information, advice and inspiration to people planning their holidays. Bradt's monthly newsletter hits an engaged, opt-in database of over 11,000 and the website reaches a targeted, high-quality market with over 120,000 page views and 50,000 unique visitors monthly.

To celebrate the publication of Bradt's North Devon & Exmoor, we'll be running a dedicated digital marketing campaign through our social media channels and website. Currently we have 6,000 Facebook fans and 27,600 Twitter followers, regularly achieving 1 million impressions monthly.

There are a range of advert positions available, from homepage to pages about particular counties, advertising in our monthly e-newsletter, or opportunities to participate in the dedicated digital marketing campaign. For a full list of options and prices, please contact Deborah at advertising@bradtguides.com or 01753 893444.

Advertisers will be entitled to a 50% discount on the retail price of copies of North Devon & Exmoor purchased during the year of publication.

Bradt About Bradt's SlowTravel Series

Bradt 'Slow Travel' guides to British regions are unique: personal and engaging in a way that you won't find in other mainstream series, they are written only by local authors who know their regions intimately. We like to encourage visitors to ditch their 'must-see ticklists', ease their pace and take time to enjoy some of Britain's most distinctive and special corners.

Launched in 2010, the Slow Travel series is now the largest regional guidebook series in the UK. By spring 2019 there will be 18 titles in print, many of which are unique to this series. The books have received many plaudits – indeed the first edition of North Devon & Exmoor was voted 'Best Guidebook of the Year' by the British Guild of Travel Writers.

This updated second edition of North Devon & Exmoor will be supported with a competition and dedicated marketing campaign, and will be promoted locally through press, bookshops and other outlets and nationally through our website and social media channels. See page 2 for more information on how to participate.

Independent on Sunday

"Each book glories in its location and is packed with ideas about how to make the most of a trip"

Wanderlust Magazine

"Full of history, interesting diversions and practical advice"

Hugh Fearnley-Whittingstall

"Slow guides take time to point the way"

Nicholas Crane – President of the Royal Geographical Society

"A real pleasure to see England written about as if it's an exotic secret"

India Knight – Sunday Times

"Eye-opening and wonderful"
