- c. Please note that we are required to advise you of the possibility that there may be other costs or taxes imposed by third parties in connection with this product/service. However, we are not aware of any.

1.2.1 The terms and conditions in Section 1 and, where applicable, the Payments Services Schedule apply to all Accounts and International PhoneBank, except where otherwise indicated. Terms and conditions specific to individual Accounts are detailed below in Section 2. All the terms and conditions in this document and, where applicable, the Payments Services Schedule are legally binding so please read them through carefully before you sign the Application to indicate your agreement to them.

1.2.2 Before opening an Account we may take up references or otherwise satisfy ourselves of your identity, source of funds and suitability as an Account holder. We can refuse to open an Account or to accept a deposit without giving any reason. You must immediately inform us in writing of any material changes to the information you give to us in your Application if your circumstances change.

- 1.2.3 We may refuse to carry out an instruction or insist on further confirmation from you. Before acting on an instruction, we may also (but will not have to) take steps to check whether you authorised it. For example, we may ask you to provide more information, which may include any further proof of identity. We may also need to delay carrying out instructions to meet our obligations under regulations to combat money laundering or other regulations. We are not obliged to tell you the reason for any delay. We will not be responsible to you for loss resulting from any delay as long as we have acted reasonably.
- 1.2.4 We may change the Account's features (including any benefits included with the Account) and/or the terms and conditions from time to time. 2. Terms and conditions for the Sterling Accounts, US Dollar Accounts and Euro Accounts

In this Section, references to:

- i. Sterling (£) apply where the account held is a Sterling Account,
- ii. US Dollars (US$) apply where the account held is a US Dollar Account and
- iii. references to Euro (€) apply where the account is a Euro Account.

- 2.1 An application for an Account must be made using a valid application form. You must be 18 years of age or over and satisfy the Eligibility Criteria to apply for and hold the Account. We will tell you what the Eligibility Criteria are when you enquire about or apply for the Account, or upon request. We may change the Eligibility Criteria for the Account from time to time. If you do not satisfy the Eligibility Criteria for the Account, we reserve the right to refuse to open the Account or to close the Account if already opened.
- 2.2 The Account may be in Sterling, US Dollars or Euro. The Account requires funds to be deposited (in the currency in which the Account is held) within 6 weeks of Account opening. If you apply for more than one Account at the same time, within 6 weeks of Account opening you must deposit funds (in the appropriate currency) into whichever Account you indicated during your application is to be debited with the monthly fee (described below).
- 2.3 A monthly fee applies to the Account and you agree that we may debit that fee from the Account each month. For the purpose of this section, a 'month' means the period covered by your monthly charging period which is usually the same as your monthly statement period. We will tell you what the monthly fee is when you enquire about or apply for the Account, or upon request. We may change the monthly fee for the Account from time to time.
- 2.4 We will apply the monthly fee as follows:
 - If you have one or more Accounts in your sole name, you will only be charged one monthly fee.
 - If you have one or more joint Accounts and they are all held by the same parties then you will only be charged one monthly fee.
 - If you have one or more joint Accounts and they are not all held by the same parties then you will also be charged a separate monthly fee for each additional joint Account.
 - If you have one or more sole Accounts and one or more joint Accounts (with the joint Accounts held by all the same parties), you will be charged one monthly fee for the sole Account(s) and one monthly fee for the joint Account(s).

- 2.5 We will deduct the monthly fee from the Account (if you have one Account only) or from whichever Account you tell us to use for this purpose (if you have more than one Account). If you do not tell us promptly or at all which of your Accounts we may use for monthly fee payment purposes, you agree that we may, at our discretion, deduct such fees from any one of those Accounts.
- 2.6 If you or we close the Account from which your monthly fee is usually deducted (the 'fee payment account') leaving you with one or more remaining Accounts whose monthly fee was previously covered by the fee payment account, you agree that we may debit future monthly fees from: (a) your one remaining Account, or (b) whichever Account you tell us to use for that purpose (if you have more than one remaining Account). If you do not tell us promptly or at all which one of your remaining Accounts we may use for monthly fee payment purposes, you agree that we may, at our discretion, deduct such fees from any one of those Accounts.
- 2.7 We may, at our discretion, decide to waive the monthly fee applicable to the Account. We will normally do this in respect of any month during which you hold and maintain deposits in the Account that equal or exceed any minimum credit balance which we may apply to the Account. For the purpose of this section, a 'month' means the period covered by your monthly charging period which is usually the same as your monthly statement period. We will tell you what that minimum credit balance is when you enquire about or apply for the Account, or upon request. We may change the minimum credit balance for the Account from time to time.
- 2.8 Sterling funds will be converted into US Dollars or Euro at a rate of exchange determined by us on the day they are credited to the US Dollar Account or Euro Account. Deposits in excess of US$100,000 or €100,000 or currency equivalent into the Account should be effected by telegraphic transfer, which can be made from your local bank, anywhere in the world (subject to local regulations). All major currencies may be sent and your funds will be converted to US Dollars or Euro automatically upon receipt.
- 2.9 You can find out the current interest rates for your account and any applicable charges by telephoning our International PhoneBank service or by visiting our website at lloydsbank.com/international. We can change the rates and charges at any time. The new rates and charges will come into force as soon as we display them on our website.
- 2.10 We calculate interest on a daily basis on cleared credit balances.
- 2.11 Where interest is payable, we pay monthly interest on the 9th of each month on the Sterling Account. If the interest payment date is not a Working Day, interest is paid on the next Working Day. Interest on the US Dollar and Euro Accounts is paid half yearly on 31st May and 30th November.
- 2.12 We will credit the interest to your Account or, where you ask us in writing, to another account in your name at the same branch.
- 2.13 We may offer from time to time different benefits (such as various insurance or other benefits) with the Account covered by these Terms and Conditions. We will tell you the benefits which are available to you when you enquire about or apply for the Account, or upon request.
- 2.14 If you ask us to collect or negotiate cheques or bills payable abroad, any cheques or bills deposited which are in a currency other than Sterling or Euro and are drawn on a bank outside the UK Euro clearing system will remain uncleared for a period of up to 30 days from receipt and may be subject to local law and banking practice.
- 2.15 We may be called upon to reimburse a correspondent bank abroad for irregular items, such as forged endorsements or material alterations, discovered after the cheque or bill has apparently been paid. This liability can remain outstanding for up to six years. We will maintain a full right of recourse against you in those cases, as well as any recourse we have for any cheque or bill which is returned unpaid for normal banking reasons. Each collection will be subject to the International Chamber of Commerce's Uniform Rules for Collection. We are not liable for any loss, damage or delay which is not directly due to our own negligence or default.
- 2.16 If more than one person is named in the Application we will open all the Accounts you have requested on the Application as joint Accounts. (Please complete a separate form if you want us to open any accounts in the name of just one of you).
 - A joint Account means that both of you are separately responsible for keeping to the terms of the Account. If either of you does not keep to them, we can take action against either or both of you singly or together. For example, we can take action to recover the debt from either or both of you.
 - We may give any information about the Account to either of you.

- Either of you will be able to withdraw any money in the Account or obtain overdrafts (which may be without the other's knowledge), even if, as a result, the Account becomes overdrawn or an existing overdraft is increased. We will not be obliged to make any enquiries about the purpose of any transactions.
- 2.17 In the case of joint Accounts, you request and authorise us, until receipt by us of notice in writing to the contrary from any one of you, to:
- honour and debit to any Account in your name all payment instructions signed by any one of you. This instruction still applies if, as a result, the Account(s) become overdrawn or any existing overdraft is increased. You will be jointly and severally responsible to repay with interest any overdraft or joint loan we advance;
 - act on any request signed by any one of you to withdraw or deal with any property or securities which we may hold for you from time to time;
 - act in accordance with any instructions received from any one of you whether written, verbal or by telephone. For the avoidance of doubt this includes any payment instructions;
 - accept for the credit of your joint Account(s) payments we receive in the name of any one of you unless such credit is marked "sole account";
 - pay or deliver to or to the order of the survivor(s) of you in the event of the death of either or any one of you (as applicable) all money, securities, deeds, documents and all other property (including security boxes and their contents) whatsoever standing to the credit or held by you for any Account(s); and
 - act on any instructions given pursuant to this authority without making any enquiries as to why such instructions were given.
- 2.18 All correspondence must be directed to the International centre of whichever office of Lloyds Bank International Limited or Lloyds Bank (Gibraltar) Limited holds the Account.
- 2.19 An 'overdraft' is where we lend you money when you would not otherwise have available funds to make a payment out of your Account. The 'available funds' is the amount you can use to make payments out of your Account each day. This will be: (a) the cleared credit balance on your Account plus the amount of any Planned Overdraft (the overdraft limit); less (b) the amount of card payments we have authorised but not yet taken from your Account.
- 2.20 When working out your available funds we do not include any regular or other payments that we are aware may be paid into your Account.
- 2.21 Overdrafts are always repayable 'on demand'. This means that we can ask you to repay your overdraft (and any interest or charges) at any time, even if we have agreed a period for the overdraft with you. We can also reduce your overdraft limit at any time. If we demand repayment or reduce your limit, this will usually be due to a change or anticipated change in your personal circumstances. If we can reasonably do so without prejudicing our interests, including our regulatory position, we will give you at least 30 days notice before making the change.
- 2.22 A 'Planned Overdraft' is an overdraft up to an agreed overdraft limit that we may agree to taking into account your personal circumstances, and which you arrange with us in advance so as to increase the available funds in your Account. Please note that a Planned Overdraft is not normally available for the US Dollar Account and the Euro Account. We will send you a letter setting out the terms of any Planned Overdraft, including how long the Planned Overdraft will apply. If no period is specified in that letter, then your Planned Overdraft will be for 12 months and we may at our discretion agree to keep renewing it for further periods, which will also be for 12 months unless we tell you otherwise.
- 2.23 If you try to make a payment out of your Account (for example, by card or Direct Debit) for which you do not have available funds, we will treat this as a request for an 'Unplanned Overdraft', or for an increase in your Unplanned Overdraft if you already have one, and will consider whether we agree to your request taking into Account your personal circumstances. We will not be liable to you if we do not agree to give you an Unplanned Overdraft or increased Unplanned Overdraft.
- 2.24 When your Account goes into Unplanned Overdraft (but not when we increase one you already have), we will write to tell you we have agreed to it and our charges for considering and agreeing to your request, but we will ignore any Unplanned Overdrafts which are repaid by the end of the day. We only provide Unplanned Overdrafts for a limited period and we will write to tell you when you must repay one. Your Unplanned Overdraft will in any case end as soon as you have available funds again in your Account (but this does not stop you requesting a new Unplanned Overdraft in future).
- 2.25 The amount you have to pay for an overdraft depends on whether it is a Planned Overdraft or an Unplanned Overdraft. The interest rates and charges that apply are set out in our interest rates and money transfer charges guide, and on our website.
- 2.26 Where you do not have available funds to make a payment and we do not agree to your request for an Unplanned Overdraft or increased Unplanned Overdraft, you will not be able to make that payment. We will write to tell you we have declined your request, and our charges for considering the request, dealing with the other bank and telling you about this service.
- 2.27 If you have requested a Lloyds Bank Debit Card, the terms and conditions of the Lloyds Bank Debit Card apply. For full details, please see the Lloyds Bank Debit Card Terms and Conditions which will be sent to you with your debit card.
- 2.28 You should be aware that if the e-mail address you have provided is used by more than one member of your household, they may also obtain access to the e-mails that we send to you.
- 2.29 There may be additional charges for our particular banking or other services we provide. For full information on our charges and interest please contact the International Banking Team.
- 2.30 We can change our monthly fee and other charges or introduce new ones by giving you 30 days' notice if your Account is held with Lloyds Bank International Limited, or (where required) by giving you at least two months' notice if your Account is held with Lloyds Bank (Gibraltar) Limited.
- 2.31 At any time we can require you to close the Account. We may do this without giving any reason, but we will normally give you 30 days' notice. We accept no liability for any loss or damage sustained by you as a result of any such termination whether or not notice was given.
- 2.32 We and other members of the Lloyds Banking Group may be subject to sanctions and embargoes imposed by the international community including the United Kingdom, European Union, United Nations and United States of America. We may decline to accept Payment Instructions and may refuse to make any payment or take any action in connection with a Payment Instruction if it would result, or in our reasonable opinion is likely to result, in a breach by us or any other member of the Lloyds Banking Group or any of our or their employees of any sanction or embargo whether or not imposed in the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man, the Channel Islands or Gibraltar, and we will not be liable for any loss, damage, cost or expense for any such reason. We may disclose to the relevant authorities such information in relation to any instruction or payment as may be required.

us, Lloyds Bank International Limited

The relationship between you and us is governed by this Agreement, unless there is any legal requirement to the contrary.

2. Definitions

- 2.1 'Account': means a Lloyds Bank International Regular Saver Account to be held with us, during the Initial Term, in the Isle of Man, or in Jersey or Guernsey, as appropriate, if you are an existing customer of ours whose principal accounts are held in one of the islands.

- your Application Form;
 - these terms and conditions during the Initial Term;
 - the terms and conditions of the Instant Access Savings Account (or similar account) after the Initial Term;
 - the Bank Tariff; and
 - any other contractual document relating to the Account that you and we agree shall form part of this Agreement.
- 2.3 'Application Form' means the application you complete to open your Account.
- 2.4 'Bank Tariff' means the 'Interest Rates, Money Transfers and Account Fees Charges Guide' for the Account (as amended from time to time), or such other document as we may introduce in its place.

- 2.6 'Instant Access Savings Account' means the Lloyds Bank International Instant Access Savings Account (or any similar account which we advise you of). The Instant Access Savings Account will replace the Account upon its Conversion (as defined in condition 12.1) when the Initial Term ends (in accordance with condition 12). 3. Eligibility Criteria

- 3.1 You must be 18 years of age or over to hold an Account. You will not be eligible for the Account if, under the law or regulations in your home country or country of residence, you do not have full capacity or are prohibited from entering into this Agreement.
- 3.2 In addition to condition 3.1, other eligibility criteria may apply to the Account. We will make you aware of any additional eligibility criteria when you enquire about these eligibility criteria or apply for the Account.
- 3.3 We may change the eligibility criteria for the Account from time to time. If these changes are likely to affect our existing customers, we will notify you thirty (30) days' in advance of the changes coming into effect.
- 3.4 If you do not satisfy the eligibility criteria for the Account at any time, we reserve the right to refuse to open the Account. If the Account is already opened, we may close the Account upon providing you with thirty (30) days' notice.

4. Account Opening

- 4.1 You may only hold one Account. This may be held either in your sole name or jointly with others.
- 4.2 An application for an Account must be made using a valid Application Form, which is available by calling our International PhoneBank service, through our Website or, if you are an existing customer of ours, from your relationship manager.
- 4.3 Before opening your Account we are legally required to take up references or otherwise satisfy ourselves of your (and any other applicant's) identity and source of funds. We are also entitled to satisfy ourselves as to your (and any other applicant's) eligibility as an Account holder. We reserve the right to refuse to open an Account for any reason and our decision will be final. We may tell you the reason for refusing to open an Account, but are not obliged to do so.
- 4.4 We are legally required to verify your identity and source of funds from time to time. By signing the Application Form you consent to us making all reasonable enquiries in relation to these requirements (which may include the disclosure of information about you to third parties in accordance with the Application Form).
- 4.5 Our legal obligations may require us to delay, cancel payment and/or freeze your funds (this means that we will not allow you or any other person to withdraw money from the Account, deposit money to the Account, or carry out any other transactions). We will not be liable for any loss to you or anyone else which arises as a result of our having to take such action. Please note that in certain circumstances we may not be permitted to tell you the reason for any such delay, cancellation or freezing of payment due to legal reasons or certain other limited circumstances beyond our control. Additionally, we may, at our sole discretion and without giving you any reason or being liable for any loss that may be occasioned thereby, refuse to act on your instructions.
- 4.6 Your Account will be opened from the date we allocate you an account number, even if your Account has a 'nil' balance at that time. We will write to you with full details about your Account after we have opened it.

5. Currency, initial funding and fees

- 5.1 The Account is denominated in sterling (£).
- 5.2 The Account does not require you to make a minimum initial deposit but you may, if you wish, make a sterling deposit of up to £2,500 into your Account within twenty (20) Working Days of your Account being opened. If you make an initial deposit under this condition 5.2, you may do so from:
- another Lloyds Banking Group account through International PhoneBank or Internet Banking (if you are registered for these services); or
 - from any other account by electronic funds transfer.
- 5.3 Deposits cannot be made in cash or by cheque.
- 5.4 There may be additional charges for particular banking or other services we provide. By signing the Application Form you agree to pay those charges. For information on our current charges, please see our Bank Tariff, contact us, or visit our Website. Where possible, we will try to advise you of any additional charges in advance.

6. Deposits and Withdrawals

- 6.1 You will only be permitted to make one deposit to your Account per Month. Except for the initial deposit permitted under condition 5.2, you may deposit money into your Account by way of monthly standing order.
- 6.2 You may set up a monthly standing order into your Account of between £500 and £2,500 for each of the 12 Months during the Initial Term. Your monthly standing order must be in sterling and cannot be set up from another savings account you hold with us.
- 6.3 When setting up a monthly standing order, you must ensure that the first standing order payment is made within twenty (20) Working Days of your Account being opened, as explained in the letter we will send you after your Account had been opened. Please note that if your Account is opened during an Incomplete Month (i.e. after the second day of a calendar month), any payment you make into your Account by standing order in that Incomplete Month will not count or qualify as one of your 12 monthly standing order payments under condition 6.2. If this happens, you may wish to leave your standing order in place for an extra month to ensure your Account is funded for the full 12 Months (excluding the payment made in the Incomplete Month).
- 6.4 Provided you have sufficient cleared funds in your Account, you may request withdrawals or transfers from your Account at any time to a current account held with us, another member of the Lloyds Banking Group, or an account held with another bank.
- 6.5 Your withdrawal may be made by visiting a branch of Lloyds Bank International Limited. Your transfer request may be made by visiting a branch of Lloyds Bank International Limited, or through International PhoneBank or Internet Banking (if you are registered for these services).
- 6.6 You may also instruct us to make a payment from your Account by way of bank draft. Charges apply for payment by way of bank draft. For information on our current charges please see our Bank Tariff, contact us, or visit our Website.
- 6.7 We may also charge you for making deposits, withdrawals and transfers. By making a deposit or withdrawal or instructing a transfer you agree to pay any charges which apply. For information on our current charges, please see our Bank Tariff, contact us or visit our Website.
- 6.8 Please be aware that any withdrawals or transfers (including withdrawals or transfers made when closing your Account) may affect the amount of interest you earn on your Account (see condition 7 for details).
- 6.9 Where you instruct us to make a transfer using International PhoneBank or Internet Banking, you are responsible for ensuring that correct account details are provided for the recipient. We are under no obligation to check the accuracy of these details.
- 6.10 If you suspect that an unauthorised or incorrect payment or transfer has been made from your Account you should contact us immediately. In circumstances where you do not contact us as soon as is reasonably practicable to tell us about such suspected unauthorised or incorrect payments or transfers, we will not be liable for any loss, damage, cost or expense incurred by you as a result.
- 6.11 Your Account should not become overdrawn without prior arrangements having been made with us. If we allow an overdraft to be created on your Account (for whatever reason) this does not mean that we have given our permission for your Account to be overdrawn nor that we are bound to agree to the creation of an overdraft in future. In the event of your Account becoming overdrawn in any circumstances, we may apply debit interest or charges to your Account. For information on our current rates and charges, please see our Bank Tariff, contact us or visit our Website.

7. Interest

- 7.1 You will begin to earn interest on your Account from the date we receive 'cleared funds' into your Account. Interest is only paid on 'cleared funds'. 'Cleared funds' are funds that are in your Account and available for you to use.
- 7.2 Interest, at the applicable fixed rate for the Account (which depends on whether any withdrawals or transfers are made, as detailed in condition 7.3), is calculated daily on credit balances in your Account during the Initial Term (including any time represented by an Incomplete Month). For information on our current interest rates, please see our Bank Tariff, contact us or visit our Website.
- 7.3 If you make one or more withdrawals or transfers from your Account during the Initial Term you will not receive any interest on your Account for the whole of the Month (or, if applicable, the whole of an Incomplete Month) in which you make the withdrawal(s) or transfer(s).
- 7.4 Where interest is payable, it will be paid into your Account monthly as a single payment on the first day of the following calendar month (or if that is not a Working Day, then on the next Working Day).

- 7.5 Any interest earned on your Account will be paid without deduction, unless otherwise required by law.

8. No change to interest rates

- 8.1 We will not change the fixed rate of interest on your Account during the Initial Term.
- 8.2 We can, however, make changes to other terms of this Agreement in accordance with condition 9 below.

9. Other changes to the Agreement

- 9.1 We can change any other terms of the Agreement, including making amendments to the fees and charges contained in the Bank Tariff (excluding interest rate changes, as outlined at condition 8).
- 9.2 Where we make a change to the Agreement which is to your disadvantage, we will provide you with personal notice at least thirty (30) days' in advance of the change taking effect.
- 9.3 We can make any other changes straight away by either telling you personally or by putting notices on our Website within thirty (30) days of the change coming into effect.
- 9.4 When we tell you personally about a change we will do so by letter, email, text, statement inserts or messages, or in any other way which is sent to you individually.
- 9.5 If you disagree with the changes to this Agreement, they will not be applied to your Account if you close your Account by giving us notice in writing to Lloyds Bank International Limited, PO Box 103, Peveril Buildings, Peveril Square, Douglas, Isle of Man IM99 1SS before the change to the Agreement would otherwise become effective. We will then close your Account on the first day of the next Month to avoid loss of interest pursuant to condition 11.3. If you do not close your Account, you will be deemed to have accepted the changes.

10. Joint Account customers

- 10.1 If two or more of you are party to the Agreement, the following terms apply:
 - a. Unless and until we receive written notice from one or more of you instructing us to the contrary, any of you can give us instructions (whether in person, in writing or via International PhoneBank or Internet Banking (if you are registered for these services)) independently of the others on your joint Account. This means any one of you can, for example, withdraw all or any money on the Account without the knowledge of the others, close the Account or end a service, and apply for other services which are covered by the Agreement and which are available on your joint Account. We will not normally and shall be under no obligation to make enquiries about the purpose of any payment or instruction or confirm the instructions with the other joint Account customers.
 - b. Each of you is separately responsible for complying with the terms of the Agreement. If any one of you does not comply with the terms, we can take action against any or all of you individually or together.
 - c. We may give any information about your joint Account and the payments on it to any one of you. We can act on information about you which any of you gives us.
 - d. We may address all correspondence to the first named party on the Application Form. A notice we send to one of you will count as notice to all of you.
 - e. If we open an Account for you jointly and you later wish to remove someone from the Account, add another person to the Account or authorise someone else to operate the Account, you must all apply to do so.
 - f. If we become aware of a dispute between you, we may take steps to prevent any of you giving instructions or using the Account individually including, but not limited to, freezing the Account until the dispute is resolved. This means that we will not allow you, any other Account holder or any other person to withdraw money from the Account or deposit money into the Account (unless we agree) or carry out any other transactions until we are satisfied that the dispute is settled. We shall not be liable to you, any other Account holder or any other person for any loss, damage, cost, expense or otherwise in such event.
 - g. When this Agreement ends (or your Account is closed) we may pay or transfer money we hold for you under the Agreement or in the Account to any one of you.
 - h. If any of you die, we will pay or hold all money held in the Account to or to the order of the remaining joint Account customers and may act on their instructions upon receipt of appropriate proof of death, unless we have received notice that you are not to be treated as joint owners.

11. Closing the Account

- 11.1 You can close your Account at any time by sending written notice to Lloyds Bank International Limited, PO Box 103, Peveril Buildings, Peveril Square, Douglas, Isle of Man IM99 1SS.
- 11.2 We reserve the right to close your Account:
- a. by giving you thirty (30) days' written notice before doing so; or
 - b. immediately if:
 - (1) you or someone else is, or we reasonably consider you or someone else may be:
 - (i) using, or allowing someone else to use, the Account or a service linked to the Account illegally;
 - (ii) acting fraudulently;
 - (iii) behaving improperly (for example, in a threatening or abusive manner); or
 - (2) we reasonably consider that by allowing your Account to remain open:
 - (i) we may breach a legal requirement or a court order or other authority;
 - (ii) we (or another company in the Lloyds Banking Group) may be exposed to action from any government or regulator;
 - (3) you have seriously or persistently breached this Agreement in any other way; or
 - (4) we, in our absolute discretion, deem it necessary for legal or regulatory reasons.
- 11.3 If you or we close your Account, you will not receive any interest for the whole of the Month (or, if applicable, the whole of an Incomplete Month) in which you close your Account.
- 11.4 In the event of your death, we may need to see a grant of probate, certificate of confirmation, or grant of representation, which must be valid and binding in the place in which your Account is held, before releasing money in your Account to your personal representative and closing your Account. For Accounts held in joint names please see condition 10.1h.

12. Automatic Conversion of the Account

- 12.1 Unless we or you have closed or have served notice to close your Account during the Initial Term, we will automatically convert your Account into an Instant Access Savings Account (or, if it is no longer available, into a similar account which we advise you of) ('Conversion') at the end of the Initial Term. Your account number and sort code will remain the same after Conversion and we will continue to accept your standing order until you cancel it. You can close your Instant Access Savings Account (or similar account) at any time.
- 12.2 The terms and conditions that will apply to your Instant Access Savings Account are shown in the accompanying Part B. We will write to tell you about the Conversion on or before the end of the Initial Term. In the event that your Account is converted into a similar account, we will write to tell you this on or before the end of the Initial Term and will supply you with a copy of the relevant terms and conditions for that account.

13. Statements and other communications

- 13.1 We will send you a statement at the end of the Initial Term showing transactions on your Account. You should read this statement carefully and tell us straight away if you believe there are any incorrect entries.
- 13.2 We will send you a duplicate statement on request. There will be a reasonable charge for this which you will be notified of at the time of your request. This may be deducted from your Account but any deduction will not be treated as a withdrawal or transfer triggering the loss of interest on your Account under condition 7.3.
- 13.3 You must tell us if your name or contact details change. If you do not tell us, we will go on using the details you last gave us and we will not be liable if we fail to contact you or if we send confidential information to your former contact details. We may charge you our reasonable costs if we need to trace you.

14. Liability

- 14.1 We will not be liable to you for direct loss unless such direct loss is caused by our breach of contract or negligence. We are not liable for indirect loss or costs (for example, loss of business, loss of opportunity, loss of profit, or any type of special or consequential loss). In addition to any other conditions where we exclude or limit our liability, we are not liable to you for losses or costs (whether direct or indirect) caused by or arising from any abnormal or unforeseeable event, such as:

- a. any failure, delay, interruption, error or problem with another system or network or transmission link or with data processing, or any mechanical breakdown of equipment or failure of power supplies, not being directly our fault; or
 - b. any period of essential maintenance, critical change, repair, alteration or failure of computer systems or networks; or
 - c. any industrial dispute or action; or
 - d. anything beyond our reasonable control or that of our agents or sub-contractors.
- 14.2 Nothing in this Agreement will exclude or restrict any duty or liability which we may have or owe to you, or which we are not allowed to limit or exclude, under any applicable law or regulation.

15. Set off

- 15.1 You agree that if you fail to pay us any amount which you owe us we shall have a right (at any time and without notice to you) to combine or consolidate all or any accounts held with us in your name (including, without limitation, those in joint names) and to set off, apply, or transfer any credit sums of any one or more of the accounts against any of your liabilities to us. This is called our right of 'set off' and exists in addition to any other legal rights which we may have under these terms and conditions or generally, subject to the law of the island in which your Account is held.
- 15.2 If we consider the funds in the Account are or may be subject to conflicting claims, we may in our absolute discretion take such steps as we consider necessary including, without limitation, the taking of professional advice and making an application to a court of competent jurisdiction, and we shall not be liable for complying with the order of any such court. You agree that, pending resolution of any conflicting claim, we shall have the right to refuse to pay or deliver all or any part of the funds in the Account to you and to charge you for all costs associated with taking any steps to resolve or deal with such claims or to protect our interests.

16. Other terms

- 16.1 Neither the funds nor your rights in the Account may be:
- a. assigned or transferred by you to anyone else; or
 - b. given or promised by you as security for financial liability to someone else; unless we agree to this in writing.
- 16.2 You agree that we may assign or transfer our rights or obligations under these terms and conditions at any time upon giving you thirty (30) days' notice. Your rights under the Agreement will not be affected if we do so.
- 16.3 By entering into this Agreement you agree that we may disclose to a prospective assignee or transferee or any other person who may propose entering into contractual relations with us in relation to this Agreement such information about you as we consider reasonably necessary and you hereby unambiguously and explicitly consent to such disclosure, subject always to the conditions set out in the Application Form.
- 16.4 If one or more parts of this Agreement become invalid or unenforceable in any way under any applicable law, this will not affect the validity of the remaining terms in any way.
- 16.5 We may refuse to accept a payment into your Account or make a payment from it if we reasonably believe that doing so might cause us (or another company in the Lloyds Banking Group) to breach a legal requirement or might expose us (or another company in the Lloyds Banking Group) to action from any government or regulator. We reserve the right to refuse to accept a payment into your Account or make a payment from it if, in our absolute discretion, we deem such refusal necessary for a legal, regulatory, security, contractual or other reason which shall be determined by us in our sole discretion. We also reserve the right to reverse or recall any payment into or payment from your Account if we have reasonable grounds for believing such payment has been made fraudulently or illegally or otherwise in breach of this Agreement. We will not be liable for any loss, damage, cost or expense suffered by you as a result of our refusing to accept a payment into your Account or refusing to make a payment from your Account, or reversing or recalling a payment into your Account or a payment from your Account. Please note that in certain circumstances we may not be able to tell you the reason for any such refusal, reversal or recall due to legal reasons or certain other limited circumstances beyond our control.

- 16.6 We and other members of the Lloyds Banking Group may be subject to sanctions and embargoes imposed by the international community including the United Kingdom, European Union, United Nations and United States of America. We may decline to accept payment instructions and may refuse to make any payment or take any action in connection with a payment instruction if it would result, or in our reasonable opinion is likely to result, in a breach by us or any other member of the Lloyds Banking Group or any of our or their employees of any sanction or embargo whether or not imposed in the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man or the Channel Islands, and we will not be liable for any loss, damage, cost or expense for any such reason.

We may disclose to the relevant authorities such information in relation to any instruction or payment as may be required. For additional details on how we may use your information, please see the Application Form.

- 16.7 As stated in the Application Form, where you are or become resident in the European Union (EU) for tax purposes, your Account will be subject to exchange of information to the tax or competent authorities in the island in which your Account is held, for onward reporting to the tax or competent authorities of the EU country in which you reside for tax purposes. By signing the Application Form you expressly consent to this exchange of information taking place. You also agree to notify us promptly of any change in your residency for tax purposes.
- 16.8 This Agreement will be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the jurisdiction where the branch holding your Account is situated (as indicated in your Application Form). Where the Account is held in, or the product or service is provided by Lloyds Bank International Limited in, the Isle of Man (or in Jersey or Guernsey, as appropriate, if you are an existing customer with accounts in either island), the laws of the Isle of Man (or, where applicable, of Jersey or Guernsey, as appropriate) will apply to the Agreement and the Isle of Man (or, where applicable, the Jersey or Guernsey) courts shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any proceedings in connection with any disputes in relation to this Agreement. By signing the Application Form, you agree that any dispute may be resolved by the courts in the relevant jurisdiction.
- 16.9 Where your Account is held in Jersey, you agree that to the extent permitted by law, no statutory terms (which shall include warranties, conditions or other contractual provisions) or rights, duties or liabilities imposed under the Supply of Goods and Services (Jersey) Law 2009 shall apply to you in relation to this Agreement.

For information on our current rates and charges, please see our Bank Tariff, contact us or visit our Website.

- 8.4 Any interest earned on your Account will be paid without deduction, unless otherwise required by law.
- 9. Changing interest rates

- 9.2 We may change our interest rates by publishing a notice on our website on or before the date upon which the change of interest rate comes into effect.
- 9.3 You can also find out about any interest rate changes by calling our International PhoneBank service. We will update our International PhoneBank service within three (3) Working Days of an interest rate change taking effect.
- 10. Other changes to the Agreement
- 10.1 We can change any other terms of the Agreement, including making amendments to the fees and charges contained in the Bank Tariff (excluding interest rate changes, as outlined at condition 9).
- 10.2 Where we make a change to the Agreement which is to your disadvantage, we will provide you with personal notice at least thirty (30) days' in advance. If you do not close your Account you will be deemed to have accepted the changes.
- 10.3 We can make any other changes straight away either by telling you personally or by putting notices on our Website within thirty (30) days of the change coming into effect.

- 10.4 When we tell you personally about a change we will do so by letter, email, text, statement inserts or messages, or in any other way which is sent to you individually.

11. Joint Account customers

- 11.1 If two or more of you are party to the Agreement, the following terms apply:
- Unless and until we receive written notice from one or more of you instructing us to the contrary, any of you can give us instructions (whether in person, in writing or via International PhoneBank or Internet Banking (if you are registered for these services)) independently of the others on your joint Account. This means any one of you can, for example, withdraw all or any money on the Account without the knowledge of the others, close the Account or end a service, and apply for other services which are covered by the Agreement and which are available on your joint Account. We will not normally and shall be under no obligation to make enquiries about the purpose of any payment or instruction or confirm the instructions with the other joint Account customers.
 - Each of you is separately responsible for complying with the terms of the Agreement. If any one of you does not comply with the terms, we can take action against any or all of you individually or together.
 - We may give any information about your joint Account and the payments on it to any one of you. We can act on information about you which any of you gives us.
 - We may address all correspondence to the first named party on the Application Form. A notice we send to one of you will count as notice to all of you.
 - If we open an Account for you jointly and you later wish to remove someone from the Account, add another person to the Account or authorise someone else to operate the Account, you must all apply to do so.
 - If we become aware of a dispute between you, we may take steps to prevent any of you giving instructions or using the Account individually including, but not limited to, freezing the Account until the dispute is resolved. This means that we will not allow you, any other Account holder or any other person to withdraw money from the Account or deposit money into the Account (unless we agree) or carry out any other transactions until we are satisfied that the dispute is settled. We shall not be liable to you or any other Account holder or any other person for any loss, damage, cost, expense or otherwise in such event.
 - When this Agreement ends (or your Account is closed) we may pay or transfer money we hold for you under the Agreement or in the Account to any one of you.
 - If any of you die, we will pay or hold all money held in the Account to or to the order of the remaining joint Account customers and may act on their instructions upon receipt of appropriate proof of death, unless we have received notice that you are not to be treated as joint owners.

- you have seriously or persistently breached this Agreement in any other way; or

- we, in our absolute discretion, deem it necessary for legal or regulatory reasons.

For Accounts held in joint names please see condition 11.1h.

13. Statements and other communications

- 13.1 We will send you a statement annually on the anniversary of account Conversion, showing transactions on your Account. You should read this statement carefully and tell us straight away if you believe that there are any incorrect entries.

In addition to any other conditions where we exclude or limit our liability, we are not liable to you for losses or costs (whether direct or indirect) caused by or arising from any abnormal or unforeseeable event, such as:
- any failure, delay, interruption, error or problem with another system or network or transmission link or with data processing, or any mechanical breakdown of equipment or failure of power supplies, not being directly our fault; or
 - any period of essential maintenance, critical change, repair, alteration or failure of computer systems or networks; or
 - any industrial dispute or action; or
 - anything beyond our reasonable control or that of our agents or sub-contractors.
- 14.2 Nothing in this Agreement will exclude or restrict any duty or liability which we may have or owe to you, or which we are not allowed to limit or exclude, under any applicable law or regulation.
- 14.3 Neither the funds nor your rights in the Account may be:
- assigned or transferred by you to anyone else; or
 - given or promised by you as security for financial liability to someone else; unless we agree to this in writing.

15. Set off

- 15.1 You agree that if you fail to pay us any amount which you owe us we shall have a right (at any time and without notice to you), to combine or consolidate all or any accounts held with us in your name (including, without limitation, those in joint names) and to set off, apply or transfer any credit sums of any one or more of the accounts against any of your liabilities to us. This is called our right of 'set off' and exists in addition to any other legal rights which we may have under these terms and conditions or generally, subject to the law of the island in which your Account is held.
- 15.2 If we consider the funds in the Account are or may be subject to conflicting claims, we may in our absolute discretion take such steps as we consider necessary including, without limitation, the taking of professional advice and making an application to a court of competent jurisdiction, and we shall not be liable for complying with the order of any such court. You agree that, pending resolution of any conflicting claim, we shall have the right to refuse to pay or deliver all or any part of the funds in the Account to you and to charge you for all costs associated with taking any steps to resolve or deal with such claims or to protect our interests.

16. Other terms

- 16.1 You agree that we may assign or transfer our rights or obligations under these terms and conditions at any time upon giving you thirty (30) days' notice. Your rights under the Agreement will not be affected if we do so.

- 16.2 By entering into this Agreement, you agree that we may disclose to a prospective assignee or transferee or any other person who may propose entering into contractual relations with us in relation to this Agreement such information about you as we consider reasonably necessary and you hereby unambiguously and explicitly consent to such disclosure, subject always to the conditions set out in the Application Form.
- 16.3 If one or more parts of this Agreement become invalid or unenforceable in any way under any applicable law, this will not affect the validity of the remaining terms in any way.
- 16.4 We may refuse to accept a payment into your Account or make a payment from it if we reasonably believe that doing so might cause us (or another company in the Lloyds Banking Group) to breach a legal requirement or might expose us (or another company in the Lloyds Banking Group) to action from any government or regulator. We reserve the right to refuse to accept a payment into your Account or make a payment from it if, in our absolute discretion, we deem such refusal necessary for a legal, regulatory, security, contractual or any other reason which shall be determined by us in our sole discretion. We also reserve the right to reverse or recall any payment into or payment from your Account if we have reasonable grounds for believing such payment has been made fraudulently or illegally or otherwise in breach of this Agreement. We will not be liable for any loss, damage, cost or expense suffered by you as a result of our refusing to accept a payment into your Account or refusing to make a payment from your Account, or reversing or recalling a payment into your Account or a payment from your Account. Please note that in certain circumstances we may not be able to tell you the reason for any such refusal, reversal or recall due to legal reasons or certain other limited circumstances beyond our control.

We may decline to accept payment instructions and may refuse to make any payment or take any action in connection with a payment instruction if it would result, or in our reasonable opinion is likely to result, in a breach by us or any other member of the Lloyds Banking Group or any of our or their employees of any sanction or embargo whether or not imposed in the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man or the Channel Islands, and we will not be liable for any loss, damage, cost or expense for any such reason. - 3.5 Your Account requires a minimum initial deposit of £5,000, €5,000 or US$5,000 (depending on the currency in which your Account is held).
- 3.6 You may deposit a maximum, inclusive of interest, of £5,000,000, €5,000,000 or US$5,000,000 (depending on the currency in which your Account is held) into your Account or, if you hold more than one Account in the same currency, then the total cumulative maximum, inclusive of interest, you may deposit in all Accounts held in that same currency is £5,000,000, €5,000,000 or US$5,000,000 (as appropriate). Once the balance of your Account or the total cumulative balance of all your Accounts held in the same currency, inclusive of interest, reaches £5,000,000, €5,000,000 or US$5,000,000 (as appropriate) you may still earn interest on your Account or Accounts (subject always to conditions 4, 5 and 8/9) but you will not be entitled to make any further deposits, unless the balance of your Account or the total cumulative balance of all Accounts held in the same currency falls below £5,000,000, €5,000,000 or US$5,000,000 (as appropriate).
- 3.7 You can make a deposit in sterling, euros or United States dollars (depending on the currency in which your Account is held) by bank draft or by transferring money either from an account held with another bank or from certain other Lloyds Bank accounts through our International PhoneBank or our Internet Banking services (if you are registered for them).
- 3.8 A charge may be applied for transfers into your Account from an account held with a bank other than Lloyds Bank. Details of these charges can be found in our Bank Tariff.
- 3.9 Your Account will be opened from the date we allocate you an account number, even if your Account has a 'nil' balance at that time.

4. Interest

- 4.1 Subject to conditions 3, 4 and 5, your Account pays monthly interest at our standard rate and may in addition pay interest at our introductory bonus rate. The standard rate of interest and introductory bonus rate may vary from time to time depending on the balance of your Account and the currency in which your Account is held. Details of our standard rate of interest and our introductory bonus rate can be found in our Bank Tariff.
- 4.2 Interest will be calculated daily at our standard rate on the cleared credit balance of your Account and will be paid monthly on the 10th day of each following month (or if that is not a working day, then on the next working day) or on closure of your Account if earlier.
- 4.3 You can find out the current interest rates for your Account and any applicable charges by calling our International PhoneBank service or by visiting our website at lloydsbank.com/international
- 4.4 Any interest earned on your Account (including any introductory bonus payable under condition 5.1 below) will be paid subject to the deduction of all applicable taxes, if any, at the appropriate rate. Subject always to conditions 3, 4 and 5, all interest will be added to your Account unless you tell us to add it to another Lloyds Bank account held in your name with the same branch or office.

- 4.5 If the balance in your Account falls below £1, €1 or US$1 (as appropriate), you will not receive interest (whether at our standard rate or our introductory bonus rate) on your Account. Subject to conditions 3, 4 and 5, interest will start to be paid again (on the whole balance) if the balance is restored above that limit.
- 4.6 See condition 7 below for information about withdrawals and transfers from the Account.
- 5. Introductory Bonus
- 5.1 Subject to conditions 3 and 4 above, you will be entitled to receive interest on your Account at our introductory bonus rate (the "introductory bonus") in respect of the 12-month period (the "bonus period") immediately following Account opening (in accordance with condition 3.9 above).
- 5.2 Any introductory bonus earned on your Account will be paid at such rate as we may publicise or communicate to you either in the Bonus Tariff or otherwise in writing before or at the time of your application for the Account.
- 5.3 The introductory bonus will be calculated daily on the cleared credit balance of your Account during the bonus period and paid monthly into the Account on the 10th day of each month (or if that is not a working day, then on the next working day) together with any other accrued interest, as a single interest item. Any introductory bonus earned on your Account will be paid subject to the deduction of all applicable taxes, if any, at the appropriate rate.
- 5.4 At the end of the bonus period, no further introductory bonus will be payable on your Account.
- 6. Further Deposits
- 6.1 Subject to the limit on deposits in condition 3.6 above, you may make further deposits into your Account at any time. You can make your further deposits in sterling, euro or United States dollars (depending on the currency in which your Account is held) and in the manner set out in condition 3.7 above.
- 6.2 Please note that currency conversion charges may apply where you make a deposit in a different currency to that in which your Account is held.
- 7. Withdrawals and transfers

- 14. Joint Account customers
- 14.1 If two or more of you are party to the Agreement, the following terms apply:
- Unless and until we receive written notice from one or more of you instructing us to the contrary, any of you can give us instructions (whether in person, in writing or via International PhoneBank or Internet Banking (if you are registered for these services)) independently of the others on your joint Account. This means any one of you can, for example, withdraw all or any money on the Account without the knowledge of the others, close the Account or end a service, and apply for other services which are covered by the Agreement and which are available on your joint Account. We will not normally make enquiries about the purpose of any payment or instruction or confirm the instructions with the other joint Account customers.
 - Each of you is separately responsible for complying with the terms of the Agreement. If any one of you does not comply with the terms, we can take action against any or all of you alone or together.

- c. We may give any information about your joint Account and the payments on it to any one of you. We can act on information about you which any of you gives us.
 - d. We may address all correspondence to the first named party on the Application Form. A notice we send to one of you will count as notice to all of you.
 - e. If we open an Account for you jointly and you later wish to remove someone from the Account, add another person to the Account or authorise someone else to operate the Account, you must all apply to do so.
 - f. If we become aware of a dispute between you, we may take steps to prevent any of you giving instructions or using the Account individually including, but not limited to, freezing the Account until the dispute is resolved. This means that we will not allow you, any account holder or other person to withdraw money from the Account or deposit money into the Account (unless we agree) or carry out any other transactions until we are satisfied that the dispute is settled, and we shall incur no liability to you or any other account holder or any other person for any loss, damage, cost, expense or otherwise in such event.
 - g. When the Agreement ends (or your Account is closed) we may pay or transfer money we hold for you under the Agreement or in the Account to any one of you.
 - h. If any of you die, we will normally pay all money held in the Account to or to the order of the remaining joint Account customers and may act on their instructions.
- 15.8 You agree that, in addition to any general lien or similar right which we may have, we shall have a right at any time, without notice to you, to combine or consolidate all or any accounts in your name (including, without limitation, those in joint names) and to set off or transfer any sums standing to the credit of any one or more of the accounts against any of your liabilities to us.
- 15.9 If we consider the funds in the Account are or may be subject to conflicting claims, we may in our absolute discretion take such steps as we consider necessary including, without limitation, the taking of professional advice and making an application to a court of competent jurisdiction, and we shall not be liable for complying with the order of any such court. You agree that, pending resolution of any conflicting claim, we shall have the right to refuse to pay or deliver all or any part of the funds in the Account to you and to charge you for all costs associated with taking any steps to resolve or deal with such claims or to protect our interests.
- 15.10 You agree that we may assign or transfer our rights or obligations under these Terms and Conditions at any time, upon giving you 30 days' notice. You agree that we may disclose to a prospective assignee or transferee or any other person who may propose entering into contractual relations with us in relation to the Agreement such information about you as we consider necessary and you hereby unambiguously and explicitly consent to such disclosure.
- 15.11 If one, or part of these Terms and Conditions becomes invalid or unenforceable in any way under any applicable law, this will not affect the validity of the remaining terms in any way.
- 15.12 The Agreement will be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the jurisdiction where the branch or office holding your Account is situated. Where the Account is held in, or the product or service is provided by Lloyds Bank International Limited in, the Isle of Man (or in Jersey or Guernsey, as appropriate, if you are an existing customer with accounts in either island), the laws of the Isle of Man (or, where applicable, of Jersey or Guernsey, as appropriate) will apply to the Agreement and the Isle of Man (or, where applicable, the Jersey or Guernsey) courts shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any proceedings in connection with any disputes in relation to the Agreement. Where the Account is held in Gibraltar or the product or service is provided by Lloyds Bank (Gibraltar) Limited (whether or not such product or service is provided by third parties on its behalf), the laws of Gibraltar will apply to the Agreement and the Gibraltar courts shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any proceedings in connection with any disputes in relation to the Agreement. By signing the Application Form, you agree that any dispute may be resolved by the courts in the relevant jurisdiction.
- 15.13 We may refuse to accept a payment into your Account or make a payment from it if we reasonably believe that doing so might cause us (or another company in the Lloyds Banking Group) to breach a legal requirement or might expose us (or another company in the Lloyds Banking Group) to action from any government or regulator. We reserve the right to refuse to accept a payment into your Account or make a payment from it if, in our absolute discretion, we deem such refusal necessary for legal, regulatory, security, contractual or any other reason which shall be determined by us in our sole discretion. We also reserve the right to reverse or recall any payment into or payment from your Account if we have reasonable grounds for believing such payment has been made fraudulently or illegally or otherwise in breach of this Agreement. We will not be liable for any loss, damage, cost or expense suffered by you as a result of our refusing to accept a payment into your Account or to make a payment from your Account, or reversing or recalling a payment into your Account or a payment from your Account.

We are not liable for indirect loss or costs (for example, loss of business, loss of opportunity, loss of profit, or any type of special or consequential loss). In addition to the other terms and conditions where we exclude or limit liability, we are not liable for losses or costs (whether direct or indirect) caused by or arising from:

We may decline to accept payment instructions and may refuse to make any payment or take any action in connection with a payment instruction if it would result, or in our reasonable opinion is likely to result, in a breach by us or any other member of the Lloyds Banking Group or any of our or their employees of any sanction or embargo whether or not imposed in the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man or the Channel Islands, and we will not be liable for any loss, damage, cost or expense for any such reason. - b. When Lloyds Bank transfers funds overseas by electronic transfer, it is unable to guarantee receipt of the funds by the beneficiary within a specific time frame. While every effort is made to ensure that funds are delivered within four banking days of the value date of transfer, delivery of the funds may be delayed as a result of overseas banking systems, or of complications in the routing of payments. In normal circumstances, it will not be possible to cancel a payment instruction once the funds have been transmitted overseas but at its discretion Lloyds Bank will endeavour to request a refund of the funds. Withdrawals made at maturity from Fixed Term Deposit Contracts must be advised before 4.00pm (UK time for accounts with Lloyds Bank International Limited and Gibraltar time for accounts with Lloyds Bank (Gibraltar) Limited) three working days before the day of maturity for all currencies other than sterling. Sterling withdrawals must be advised before 4.00pm (UK time) the working day prior to the day of maturity. In exceptional circumstances the Bank will consider requests for early repayment. In such instances, a charge will be levied for breaking the contract. On call accounts additions and withdrawals may be made on any business working day.
9. In the absence of instructions to the contrary being received:
 - i. for a fixed term deposit contract denominated in sterling, before 4.00pm (UK time) on the working day prior to the maturity date; or
 - ii. for a fixed term deposit contract denominated in any currency other than sterling, before 4.00pm (UK time for accounts with Lloyds Bank International Limited and Gibraltar time for accounts with Lloyds Bank (Gibraltar) Limited) three working days prior to the maturity date; we will

All additions to and withdrawals from a fixed term deposit contract will pass through the principal servicing account. If a suitable call account is already open, the Bank will use this account as the principal servicing account and advise you accordingly. If a suitable account is not available the Bank will open a new principal servicing account for you and advise you of the new account number. A principal servicing account can be used to hold monies not intended for a maturing fixed term deposit contract. The Bank will not therefore automatically transfer monies from a principal servicing account to a maturing fixed term deposit contract. It is the responsibility of the account holder to issue the Bank with specific instructions for the movement of funds from their principal servicing account within the time limits referred to in clause 8 of these terms and conditions if adding to a maturing fixed term deposit contract. A principal servicing account must be maintained for the duration of the fixed term deposit contract.

In normal circumstances, it will not be possible to cancel a payment instruction once the funds have been transmitted overseas but at its discretion the Company will endeavour to request a refund of the funds. If this is successful, the customer's account will be credited net of incidental expenses and with the value date on which the Company received the funds.

2. Your Card

- 2.1 We will give you one of the Cards described above, subject to eligibility. You may not qualify for the Card of your choice. If this is the case, we will issue you with the best Card for which you are eligible.
- 2.2 The type of Card issued to you may be reviewed at any time, at your request or otherwise, in which case we may send you a different type of Card. You agree that these Terms and Conditions, as varied from time to time, will apply to any Card issued to you now and in the future.
- 2.3 If, at any time, you do not want a Card with the features of the one we have issued to you, please let us know. We may then offer you a different type of Card or choose not to offer you a Card at all.
- 2.4 As soon as you receive the Card, please read these terms and conditions, and if you are happy with them please sign the Card. If you do not wish to be bound by these terms and conditions, please return the Card to any Lloyds Bank branch, cut in two across the magnetic stripe.
- 2.5 The Card belongs to us. If we ask for it back, you must not use it again and you must return it to a Lloyds Bank branch immediately, cut in half across the magnetic stripe.
- 2.6 Your Card is only valid for the time period printed on it. You must not use it outside that period.
- 2.7 We may cancel or suspend your use of the Card at any time and without advance notice. We will always confirm this to you in writing. Once your Card has been cancelled, the Card number cannot be used.
- 2.8 When a Card expires, or is lost or stolen, we may provide you with a new Card.
- 2.9 You must not allow anyone else to use your Card or Card number, and you must always keep your Card safe. Do not alter or deface your Card. You must always follow any instructions we give in connection with the use and safekeeping of your Card and Card number.

3. Your PIN – Personal Identification Number

- 3.1 On receipt of your PIN, you must memorise the number and then destroy the slip on which it is printed.
- 3.2 Your PIN must be kept secret. Do not let anyone else know it, or use it.
- 3.3 Never write down or record your PIN or other security information.

- 3.4 You may wish to choose your own PIN or change the one issued to you. You can do this at any Lloyds Bank cash machine and at many other cash machines across the British Isles.

4. Chip Cards

- 4.1 Any programs and data held on an integrated circuit within the Card are our private property and are accessible only to authorised users for authorised purposes. It is a criminal offence to obtain unauthorised access to any program or data in the chip, or to make any unauthorised modification to the chip's contents.

5. Retailers

- 5.1 We are not liable if any Retailer, bank, cash terminal or other machine will not accept your Card.
- 5.2 If a Retailer is responsible for refunding sums under a Transaction to you, we will only credit your Account with the amount of the refund when we have received the proper voucher or other satisfactory confirmation from the Retailer.

6. Transactions

Using your Card to withdraw cash:

- 6.1 You can use your Card and PIN to make withdrawals and payments from your Account by means of the various facilities we make available to you. For most Transactions you will be asked to sign a voucher or to key in your PIN, though telephone, mail order and Internet transactions can be completed without doing either.
- 6.2 With a Transaction in a foreign currency, we will convert it into £ sterling on the day we deduct the payment from your Account. The exchange rate we use is a combination of the rate set by Visa and a percentage adjustment made by us, set from time to time.
- 6.3 If you use the Card to draw cash from a machine operated by another bank, we may impose a charge. The bank which owns the Cash machine may charge a handling charge.
- 6.4 You may be charged for using a cash machine within the LINK network. Should a charge apply you will be notified on screen of the exact amount of that charge and who is levying it. You will be given a 'yes/no' option to proceed or cancel the transaction. If you use your card to withdraw cash while you are abroad there will be a handling charge. The purchase of foreign currency and travellers cheques is also subject to this handling charge. This charge does not apply when you purchase currency or travellers cheques at branches of Lloyds Bank.
- 6.5 Your Card and PIN can be used in some cash machines to get information about your Account.
- 6.6 When you use your Card to draw cash from a cash machine, we will debit that amount, plus any handling charge, from your Account. This applies whether or not this puts your account into overdraft or increases one you already have. Using your Card to make purchases: (If applicable)
- 6.7 Once the Card has been used for a Transaction, that transaction cannot be stopped. We will deduct the amount of any Transactions from your Account.
- 6.8 If, when you receive your bank statement, an item recorded against the Card seems to you to be incorrect, you should tell your branch as soon as possible.
- 6.9 A Retailer may contact us, or an agent acting for us, for confirmation – or 'authorisation' – that we will pay the Transaction you want to make. We have the right to refuse authorisation for any particular Transaction. If authorisation is given, that Transaction will immediately reduce the total amount that can be drawn from your Account, even though the payment has not actually been deducted from the Account by then.
- 6.10 Transactions will usually be debited from your account within three working days of your making them, though this may take longer depending on where the Transaction was made and the systems used.

7. Cash Machine Deposits

You may be able to use your Card and PIN to make deposits to your Account through Cashpoint machines with the deposit feature. You can confirm with us whether your Card enables you to do this. We will check all these Cash Machine Transactions to make sure that the amount deposited matches the amount keyed in to the cash machine.

8. Your Account

- 8.1 We provide you with your Card so that you can operate your Account more conveniently. The Card itself does not give you an automatic overdraft or any other form of credit. If you use an Unplanned Overdraft, we will be entitled, under the terms of the Account, to charge interest at the Unplanned Overdraft interest rate for your account and to debit that interest and any resulting bank charges from your Account.
- 8.2 On each banking day, you will make one payment to us equal to the total amount of all your Debit Transactions plus all Cash Machine Transactions made at machines outside the LINK network that have become due since the previous banking day.
- 8.3 You will make this payment by our debiting it from your Account. We will also debit any other amounts you owe us under this agreement.
- 8.4 We may deduct from your Account any charges payable as specified in our published tariff of charges. We may change the tariff at any time but we will send you a copy of the new tariff before any changes take effect and you can get a copy of the latest tariff from any of our branches.
- 8.5 When you use your Card at a Retailer, bank, cash terminal or other machine, the Retailer, bank or owner of the terminal or machine may levy a charge for their service, or a tax charge, in addition to those outlined in this agreement. We have no control over these charges and will not be liable for informing you of any such charge or reimbursing you for any charges taken.

9. Joint accounts only

- 9.1 We may issue a Card to any one or more of you
- 9.2 Both of you are separately responsible for keeping to its terms. If either of you does not keep to them, we can take action against either or both of you singly or together. For example, we can take action to recover any debt from either or both of you whether it resulted from use of the Card or otherwise.

- 10.3 You must cooperate fully with us in investigating any misuse of your Card and/or PIN and in recovering a missing Card. If we suspect that a Card has been lost or stolen or is liable to misuse, we may take whatever steps we think necessary to deal with the risks. We may also pass on any information we think appropriate to other banks, Visa outlets or anyone else who accepts the Card as a means of payment or withdrawal, or to the police or other authorities.
- 10.4 If a Card is found after you have told us it is missing, it must not be used. Please cut it in half across the magnetic stripe and return it immediately to any Lloyds Bank branch.

- 5.5.4 We retain the right to refuse to execute a Payment Instruction if there are insufficient funds or headroom under a facility.
- 5.5.5 If the reason for our declining the Payment Instruction was based on incorrect or incomplete information, we will tell you what needs to be done to correct that information.

Alternatively, we may deduct our charge as a separate item from the Account. If we deduct any charges under this paragraph, we will give you details in your bank statements (or by such other means as you and we agree you shall be notified) of the amount of the money we receive and of our charges for receiving the money.

- 6.3.2 We may change our exchange rates at any time and without notice to you. Such changes to an exchange rate will be applied immediately. Please contact us for more details relating to such changes to the exchange rate.
- 6.4 Changes to interest rates, how we notify you of such changes

8. Safeguards and corrective measures

- 8.1 Keeping the Payment Instrument safe
- 8.1.1 You must take precautions to prevent anyone accessing or operating your Account or any debit card, PIN or password used in connection with the Account, other than those people you and we agree may access the Account.
- 8.1.2 From time to time, we may notify you of security precautions we require you to take. You must ensure that you promptly comply with these requirements.
- 8.1.3 You must let us know immediately if you know or believe that:
- any password, PIN, card or other instrument used in connection with the Account has been, is or may be lost, stolen, misused, or known to someone else or something has been done or tried to be done to compromise its security or the security of the Account; or
 - any fraud has been, is being or may be committed involving the Account, and you must also take any action that we specify to prevent such unauthorised use or to deal with these security issues.
- 8.1.4 If you tell us that your debit card has been lost or stolen or that someone else knows your PIN or other security information, we will take immediate steps to try to prevent these from being used.
- 8.2 We may stop a Payment Instrument
- We shall have the right to stop a Payment Instrument on reasonable grounds relating to:
- the security of the Payment Instrument;
 - the suspected unauthorised or fraudulent use of the Payment Instrument; or
 - your ability to repay any credit we have or may advance to you.
- 8.3 Your liability for unauthorised Payment Transactions
- 8.3.1 The extent of your liability for any losses you incur in respect of an unauthorised Payment Transaction:
- arising from the use of a lost or stolen Payment Instrument linked to your Account, or a misappropriation of the security features in a Payment Instrument linked to your Account; or
 - where you have acted fraudulently or with intent or gross negligence failed to take reasonable steps to keep safe any of the personalised security features of a Payment Instrument linked to your Account, are set out in the conditions governing the use of the relevant Payment Instrument.
- 8.3.2 The maximum amount for which you may be liable in respect of matters described in paragraph 8.3.1 shall be subject to any limits set down by law, from time to time. As at 29 April 2010, the limit for a Payment Transaction in the European Economic Area is €150 or currency equivalent.
- 8.4 Our liability for unauthorised Payment Transactions and how to notify us of unauthorised or incorrectly executed Payment Transactions
- You may be entitled to compensation for an unauthorised or incorrectly executed Payment Transaction but only if you notify us by telephone and without undue delay if you become aware of any unauthorised or incorrectly executed Payment Transaction, in any event no later than 13 months after the debit date. We shall have no further liability, including no responsibility for additional compensation, for unauthorised Payment Transactions, in particular we shall have no liability over and above the debited amount and no liability for any consequential damages. This limitation of liability shall, however, not apply to the extent you have suffered damages as a result of gross negligence or wilful default on our part.
- 8.5 Our liability for defective or non-execution of Payment Transactions
- 8.5.1 Where you give us a European Payment Instruction in a European Economic Area currency, we are responsible to you for the correct execution of the Payment Transaction unless the payee's bank received the amount of the Payment Transaction in accordance with the applicable transaction period set out in paragraph 5.1 above.
- 8.5.2 Where a European Payment Instruction in a European Economic Area currency is initiated by a payee (for example, a direct debit):
- where you are the payer, and the Payment Instruction has been correctly transmitted to us, but we incorrectly transmit the Payment Transaction to the payee, we shall refund the amount by which the incorrectly transmitted Payment Transaction exceeds the Payment Instruction and restore your Account to the state it should have been in if the defective Payment Transaction had been correctly executed; or
 - where you are the payee, our responsibility is limited to correctly transmitting the Payment Instruction to the payer's bank. If we incorrectly transmit a Payment Instruction to the payer's bank, you may request that we make immediate efforts to trace the Payment Transaction and notify you of the outcome.
- 8.6 Circumstances where we will make refunds for certain transactions initiated by a payee
- 8.6.1 Subject to the rules of the direct debit scheme through which a Payment Transaction is executed, where a Payment Transaction has been initiated by a payee, you are entitled to a refund from us of the full amount of the payment, if:
- you have requested a refund from us within eight weeks from the debit date;
 - the authorisation did not specify the exact amount of the Payment Transaction when the authorisation was given; and
 - the amount of the Payment Transaction exceeded the amount that you would reasonably have expected taking into account your previous spending pattern, the Account Conditions and the circumstances of the case (the effect of currency exchange will be disregarded for this purpose if a reference exchange rate has been used).
- 8.6.2 When you request a refund by us, we may require you to provide such information as is reasonably necessary to ascertain whether the conditions in paragraphs 8.6.1(b) and (c) were met. We will either refund the full amount of the payment transaction or provide justification for refusing to refund.
- 8.6.3 Any refund or justification for refusing a refund must be provided within ten business days of receiving a request for a refund or of receiving any further information requested to prove paragraphs 8.6.1(b) and (c).

8.7 Force majeure

- 8.7.1 Subject to any terms implied by law, or by the rules of any regulatory body which cannot be excluded, we will not be liable in contract, tort or otherwise in any way for loss arising due to abnormal and unforeseeable circumstances beyond our control, leading to consequences which would be unavoidable despite all efforts to the contrary.

9.1 Your deemed acceptance of changes to the Agreement

We may change any part of the Agreement including this Payment Services Schedule. Except where we are making a change to the Bank Tariff which we reasonably believe is to your benefit, we will notify you in writing at least two months before we make any change. You will be deemed to have accepted any such change, unless you notify us that you do not agree to it before the date any such change comes into effect. If you notify us that you do not to accept a change, your notice will be deemed to be notice of immediate termination of the Agreement without charge. Unless you close the Account (and pay us any outstanding amount on the Account) before the change comes into effect, we will close the Account on the day before the change takes effect. If you owe us any money on the Account at that time, it will become immediately due and payable to us.
